

1862-1863

1912 Dates J-BK

Dr - Britain

Colton famine

1862-1865

1912 Dates J-BK

(1815-1872) HENRY WAGER HALLECK

Commander-in-chief of U.S. Army (1862-64)
Born Westernville, N.Y. Graduated from West Point (1839). Served during Mexican War. Held various administrative offices in California.

Aug 1, 1854 - Resigned from the Army
and practiced law in San Francisco

Aug 19, 1861 - Re-entered the Army as Major General. Commanded Dept. of Missouri

1862

1912 Dates J-BK

(1826-1886) John Alexander LOGAN

American soldier. Born in Jackson Co. Illinois. Attended Shiloh College a short time. Became 1st Lt. in the army during war with Mexico. Graduate of Louisville Univ.. Admitted to bar (1852). Colonel 31st Ill. volunteers (1861). Brigadier General and major general (1862). Commander of 15th Corps (1863) Commander of Army of Tennessee.

June 4, 1862

Confederates evacuate Fort Pillow, Tenn.

June 6, 1862

Federals capture Memphis, after a Naval battle there.

June 6, 1862

In a battle off Memphis, the Union gunboats defeated the Confederates securing the occupation of that city. At only the strongholds of Vicksburg and Port Hudson remained to the Confederacy.

June 8, 1862

1912 Dates J-BK

CROSS KEYS

As Jackson and his Confederates retreated up the Shenandoah Valley they were followed by divisions of the Federal Army under Generals FREMONT & SHIELDS. At Cross Keys, near Harnsberg, Va. a portion of Jackson's forces led by EWELL was overtaken. On June 8, 1862, a brief engagement occurred, and during the night the Confederates withdrew

June 9, 1862

U.S. abolished slavery

June 1862-

Robert E. Lee was placed in command of the Army in account of General Johnston's disability.
The Army then became known as Army of Northern Virginia its pleasing authoritative manner accomplished wonders: Some his defensive works were well under way.

June 8-9, 1862

Jackson defeats Federals at Battles of Cross Keys and Port Republic, Virginia.

1860's

mass production of pocket watches in the United States began in the 1860's

1912 Dates J-BK

6/20/1862

(1817-1876)

BRAXTON BRAGG

Distinguished Confederate General
Born Warren Co. N.C. Graduated West Point 1837. Rendered distinguished service in Mexican War. Appointed with full rank of General to A.S. Johnston's Command on death of latter.

June 20, 1862 replaced Gen Beauregard as commander of Western Dept of which position he was relieved in Dec

1863. Feb 1864 Appointed military advisor to Jefferson Davis. 1865 Assigned active service under J. E. Johnston.

After the War Bragg became chief engineer for state of Alabama and had charge of improvements in Mobile Bay.
died in Galveston, TX.